Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association
Lakewood, Colorado

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association, which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statements of revenue, expenditures and changes in fund balances and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES to FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2012 and 2011

HISTORY and SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

History

Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association (the Association) was incorporated as a Colorado Nonprofit Corporation on June 4, 2002 to manage, maintain and preserve the common area for the benefit of the owners of the ninety-eight (98) townhomes in the development. Each townhome is a member of the Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association and the three person volunteer Board of Directors of the Association is made up of owners of member townhomes.

The Association is the owner, by grant from the developer, of the common area. The Association is charged with the administration (including management, security and professional services), maintenance, operation, repair and replacements within the common area as well as for the costs of insurance, real estate taxes and assessments, water, electricity and other necessary utility expenses for the common area. Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association may acquire, use and maintain personal property in connection with its operation and/or administration of the common area.

To accomplish the foregoing, Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association may charge and collect a common assessment to/from each townhome (which may have one or more owners). Additionally, the Association may designate part of the annual charge as an assessment for a Replacement Fund to provide for future major maintenance and replacement projects within the common area.

The Association charged each original owner an amount of $130 at the time of purchase to provide a Working Capital Fund. This Working Capital assessment shall not be refunded to a selling owner, but the Association will provide the selling owner proof of payment in order that the purchasing owner may include that amount in the purchase price.

Significant Accounting Policies

Method of Accounting

The financial statements of Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting including the use of fund accounting for the Operating Fund and the Replacement Fund.

Certificates of Deposit

As of December 31, 2012, the portfolio of the replacement fund consists of three certificates of deposit. Maturity dates range from March 2013 to June 2014 with interest rates ranging from 0.400% to 1.311%. At December 31, 2011, there were two certificates of deposit. Maturity dates were either March 2012 or June 2012 with interest rates ranging from 0.450% to 0.550%.

Assessments Receivable

The accounts receivable from owner assessments, late payment fees and other member charges are, in management's opinion, collectible in full. The Association has various legal remedies to help ensure total collection of assessments and late fees as well as other charges; However, due to the time and cost of collections, some owner receivables may not be collectable in full. At December 31, 2012 and 2011, $0 has been established as an allowance for uncollectible accounts.

Prepaid Items

The Association may pay its annual insurance premium when billed and may also fund other expenses in advance of actual use. Expenses associated with future periods are classified and recorded as prepaid items and expensed in the appropriate accounting periods.

Interfund Balances

At various times, the Operating Fund and the Replacement Fund may not have completed cash transfers between funds. Cash to be transferred from one fund to the other, if any, is recorded as interfund balances from one fund to the other.

Deferred Assessments

Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association may collect assessments levied for future periods in advance of the period due. Such advance payments are recognized in the accounting period when earned.

Replacement Fund

The Association, through its Board, has restricted the use of a portion of the annual assessment to a Replacement Fund. This fund is designated to provide the estimated cash in the future to maintain and/or replace common area property/equipment. The Board received a new reserve expenditure plan on November 12, 2010. Should the funds required for major maintenance or replacement projects in the future be inadequate, the Board of Directors has the right, subject to certain membership approval requirements, to levy a special assessment, increase the annual assessment or delay the project until the funds are available.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of cash, short-term receivables, short-term payables and long-term debt approximate their fair value at December 31, 2012 and 2011. The fair value of debt is estimated based upon current interest rates for obligations with similar terms and maturities.

Reclassifications

Certain accounts presented in the December 31, 2011 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the presentation at December 31, 2012.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Association to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of temporary cash balances. Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association maintains its cash balances in both national banks and with investment firms. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides up to $250,000 of insurance at December 31, 2012, for interest earning balances in national banks, and unlimited insurance on demand deposits. Investment firms provide insurance for the balances in their accounts. Based on the FDIC limits at year-end 2012 and 2011, the Association has $-0- in uninsured deposits.

Income Taxes

Although Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association is a nonprofit corporation under Colorado statutes, it is responsible for federal and state income taxes on any earnings from interest, dividends or other income not derived from its membership. In 2012 and 2011, the Association elected to file standard corporate tax returns (Forms 1120 and 112) with no income taxes due.

Any excess or shortfall of revenue over expenses in member operations of the Association may be carried forward to offset future excesses or shortfalls for income tax purposes with no time limit. At December 31, 2012 and 2011, the Association has a loss carryforward of $34,469 and $65,943, respectively, to offset future excess member revenue.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Contingencies

The Association is a party to various legal actions normally associated with homeowner's associations, such as the collection of delinquent accounts and owner compliance with the covenants, the aggregate effect of which, in management's opinion, would not be material to the future financial condition of the Association.

Our report on our audits of the basic financial statements of Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association at December 31, 2012 and 2011 and for the years then ended appears on page 1. These audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

The supplementary information for the year ended December 31, 2012, Schedule of Revenue and Expenditures Versus Budget, Operating Fund, on page 11, is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information, except for the portion marked "Unaudited" on which we express no opinion, has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

The Study of Future Major Repairs and Replacements presented on page 12, is not a required part of the basic financial statements of Stapleton Filing #2 Townhome Association, but is supplementary information required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We have applied certain limited procedures, which consisted principally of inquiries of management regarding the method of measurement and presentation of the supplementary information. However, we did not audit the information and express no opinion on it.

SCHEDULE OF FUTURE MAJOR
REPAIRS and REPLACEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2012

Unaudited

The Association's Board of Directors commissioned a new study in 2010 to estimate the remaining useful lives and replacement costs of the components of the Association's common property. The study was prepared by an independent building consultant who inspected the common areas of the property. Costs were based on estimates, including 4.5% inflation, offset by "after tax" 3.00% earnings, to repair or replace the common property components at the date of the study. Estimated costs have not been revised since that date.

The following table is based on the 2010 study and presents summarized information about the components, estimated lives and costs of common property:
